Latest Fund Announced

Match Funding

- Nectar Donate - Through Nectar Donate you could be eligible to unlock extra funds by enabling your supporters to donate Nectar points to your charity. Donated Nectar points from supporters will be converted into funding for thousands of charitable organisations. If you're a big UK charity or a local good cause you could be eligible to get involved.

Platinum Jubilee

- Nisa – Making a Difference Locally - The charity helps Nisa stores by allowing them to nominate UK charities or good causes that are local to them to receive a donation; up to £1000. MADL is encouraging people to contact or visit their local Nisa store directly, referencing the Heart of the Community Awards and requesting that their charity and event be nominated. This third funding round is to help communities celebrate the Queen's Jubilee, with events such as afternoon teas, garden parties and street parties. Deadline 18 Mar.

Local Authority

- Fareham BC Community Funding - The Community Fund was set up to support projects that will help communities or the environment within the Borough of Fareham.
- Eastleigh BC Community Grants - The Borough-wide scheme offers grants of up to £1,000, and priority is given to groups whose aims reflect our priorities of promoting health, prosperity, the environment, community development and community involvement, with a focus on doing more for less. There is a maximum of £1,000 per organisation for borough-wide groups. Applications close on the 28th February at 12 noon.

This Month's Top Tip:

Get your proposal reviewed internally

Getting your proposal read by a peer who has not been involved in drafting the application can also be extremely valuable. If they struggle to follow the key objectives, or what the potential impact will be, then it is likely that reviewers will also struggle.
